

Compliance and Code of Conduct

As member of EFPIA (European Federation of Pharmaceutical Industries Association) Life Molecular Imaging is committed to comply with the EFPIA codes of standard as well as with applicable national laws and regulations for an open and transparent relationship with stakeholders across healthcare including healthcare professionals (HCPs), EU institutions and patient organizations.

EU Transparency Reporting for Calendar Year 2020

Consultancy-, Speaker- & Reader Training Agreements

In Calendar Year 2020, Life Molecular Imaging paid Health Care Professionals for contractual services including consultancy services, acting as speaker at congresses or at educational sessions and for conducting Neuraceq reader trainings. In addition, Life Molecular Imaging paid for accommodation, travel and/or congress registration fees for Health Care Professionals under these contracts.

Sponsorships

Life Molecular Imaging sponsored 7 educational events and 7 individual Health Care Professionals in the EU in Calendar Year 2020.

Table: Number and compensation of Contractual Services and Sponsorships in 2020

Item	Number of Health Care Professionals / Sponsored Events	Number of Contractual Services	Aggregated Amount* [EUR]
Study-, Service- or Consultancy Agreements	7	9	8.618,00
Travel & Accommodation
EFPIA Fee	1		5.000,00
Educational Event	7	7	13.247,64

*All payments are reported as net values, excluding Value Added Tax (VAT).