

Compliance and Code of Conduct

As member of EFPIA (European Federation of Pharmaceutical Industries Association) members in research, Life Molecular Imaging is committed to comply with the EFPIA codes of standard as well as with applicable national laws and regulations for an open and transparent relationship with stakeholders across healthcare including healthcare professionals (HCPs), EU institutions and patient organizations.

Transparency Reporting for Calendar Year 2024 (EFPIA)

Consultancy-, Speaker- & Reader Training Agreements in Europe

In Calendar Year 2024, Life Molecular Imaging paid Health Care Professionals for contractual services including consultancy services, acting as speaker at congresses or at educational sessions and for conducting Neuraceq reader trainings.

Sponsorships

Life Molecular Imaging sponsored 22 educational events or conferences and 6 individual Health Care Professional that provided one or more services in Calendar Year 2024.

Table: Number and compensation of Contractual Services and Sponsorships in 2024 in EU

Item	Number of Contractual Services	Aggregated Amount* [EUR]
Study-, Service- or Consultancy Agreement	13	11233.6
Travel & Accommodation	2	266.8
Association Fees	1	7500.0
Conference, Educational Event	36	284919.5

*All payments are reported as net values, excluding Value Added Tax (VAT).